Superhero Project
Part 2: Interview With a Superhero

Student Name: _____

CATEGORY	4	3	2	1
Super Name & Secret Identity.	Name is clearly stated, significance is explained. A secret identity is provided.	Name is stated, significance may not be explained well. A secret identity is provided.	Name is stated, significance is not explained. Secret Identity may or may not be included.	Name is not stated or there is no explanation. Secret Identity left blank.
Summary of Origin	Origin is clearly explained and it is clear how abilities came about.	Origin is explained, but abilities are not as clear as they could be.	Origin is somewhat explained and abilities are not quite clear.	Origin is not explained and abilities are not explained.
Powers & Examples	Powers and abilities are clearly explained. The audience knows how they can be used positively and negatively.	Powers and abilities are briefly mentioned. The audience has some idea how they can be used positively or negatively.	Powers and abilities are mentioned, but it is unclear how they might be used positively or negatively.	Powers and abilities may be mentioned, but effect on others is not mentioned.
Moral Code/ Motivation	The audience knows what rules the superhero follows and why they do what they do.	The audience has a good idea what rules the superhero follows and why.	The audience knows what rules the superhero follows but not why.	The audience is unclear what rules govern the superhero\'s actions or why.
Character Traits/Examples	There are at minimum three character traits with examples; the examples align with the STEAL template.	Character traits are given, examples may not fully align with traits; examples may or may not be compatible with STEAL template.	There are at least two character traits given. Examples are not aligned with STEAL template.	Poorly developed character traits without examples.
Description of Costume/Impact on Audience	Costume significance is explained: symbolism in colors and decorative touches. Thoughts/ideas brought out by costume.	Costume significance is somewhat explained; thoughts and ideas brought out by the costume touched on.	Costume significance not explained significantly enough; ideas and thoughts brought out not fully explained.	Costume significance not explained; significance of ideas/thoughts brought out not explained.
Universal Idea & Explanation	Universal Idea is thoroughly explained and it is clear how they represent this idea.	Universal idea is explained, clear connections are made between the character and the universal idea.	Universal idea is mentioned; connections between universal idea and superhero not clear.	Universal idea is not mentioned and/or connections between character and idea are not explained.